

Leadership and Service Advocate of the Year Award – Community Partner Rubric

Recognizes community partners (non UF faculty or staff) who have gone above and beyond in promoting UF students to pursue service and leadership opportunities.

Requirements for the Leadership and Service Advocate of the Year Award – Community Partner

- Cannot be a current UF faculty or staff member
- Letter of Recommendation (to be uploaded in this application)

Criteria	Average (Incomplete; parts were missing)	Fair (Straight to the point; complete; no examples were given)	Good (Overall good quality but nothing stood out in the nomination).	Outstanding (Specific examples are given; there is a good story that can be shared)
Provided UF students with service and leadership opportunities
Contributed to UF students growth and development				